

As a Social Worker, I have assisted many elderly people with signing up for the no call list. Many of them have received calls from telemarketers and are fearful of becoming trapped in a telemarketers scam. Knowing that they are on list list provides them with some security in knowing that they are protected. It also provides me with a sense of relief knowing that they have this added protection.

Meghan Hyland
Social Worker